Public Comments

None

Road and Bridge

Mowing – The beginning of the mowing season was delayed a week due to a bad sensor in the tractor.
Bug Sprayer – The bug sprayer has been calibrated. The cost of the solution has increased significantly. A discussion was held on how effective the mosquito spraying program was. The board felt the areas sprayed were too open for effective spraying. It was suggested to sell the sprayer to Buckeye Lake as they want to continue the program in Buckeye Lake. The Prosecutor's Office will be contacted to determine what options are available for disposing of the sprayer.
Squire Lane – Reports of wet ditches were received. Dave will look into the complaints.
Mowing at 6265 – Randy Wolfe asked who was responsible for mowing the property. Mr. Sharps will look into the matter.

RCJFD

No update.

Administration

Election Day – The May 2 regular Trustee meeting will be canceled due to elections.

Trustees

Mr. Sharps – Thanked Mr. Start for his work on the RFQ.
Mr. Start – Mr. Start will have a representative of the Montrose Group present at the next meeting.
Mr. Slater – Nothing.

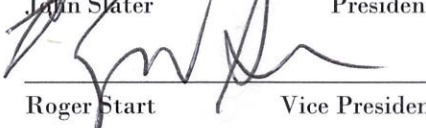

Economic Development

RFQ for Economic Development – Mr. Start interviewed the three applicants and their references. Two of the companies are some distance from the Township. The Montrose Group operates locally and is involved with projects in the area. Mr. Start recommended contracting with the Montrose Group. Mr. Slater and Mr. Sharps said they agreed with Mr. Start. A resolution will be prepared to enter into a contract with the Montrose Group. Mr. Start will contact the company for a contract.

Motion - Mr. Start moved to accept the application (RFQ) from the Montrose Group. Mr. Sharps seconded. Motion carried.
